Pierre ZonZon aka (Monsieur ZonZon) is an American Filmmaker, Entertainment Musical Director and Music Producer. He was born in Paris to parents of Martinique descent. As a youth, Pierre harbored a passion for film, photography and music and transforming these passions into full time undertakings has been a dream come true for him.

Early Career

Prior to establishing a career in music, films and photography, Pierre spent many years in hospitality and restaurant management field. He got a taste of the entertainment industry when he landed a job at Club Med, first as a Chef de Restaurant later transitioning to the roles of DJ, Sound Engineer, Videographer, and Master of Ceremonies. These roles were the beginning of the fulfillment of Pierre's passion for film, photography and music and offered vast travel opportunities. His job at Club Med took him to 11 different countries: France, Tunisia, Greece, Turkey, Haiti, Bahamas, Mexico, Guadeloupe, Martinique, Turks and Caicos and the United States.

DJ and Photography

Following a 10 year stint at Club Med, Pierre moved to New York City, where he worked as a DJ -opening famous places like Tatou, Le Bar Bat, Au Bar, Laura Belle, Country Club, Amazon Village and The Tavern. He then moved on as a DJ at some of the most prestigious and legendary venues in Miami Beach and Miami such as Bash, Vandome, Pacha, The Strand, The Living Room, Luna, Rebar, Joia, Cafe Tabac, Bambu, Rumi, State, Funkshion, Prive, Space, Dore, Mansion, Casa Tua, Soho Beach House, Cavalli, Coya, Seaspice, Piripi and Palmeiras Beach Club, Brasserie Azur and River Yacht Club (Downtown Miami).

In 1992, Pierre relocated to Miami Beach and quickly establish himself as a resident DJ on the back patio of the famous South Beach club "Bash". One year into this role, he decided to tap into the photography skills he developed in previous years. While juggling his role as resident DJ, Pierre began taking pictures of guest and celebrities, like Jack Nicholson, Sean Penn, Leonardo DiCaprio. He also did some fashion shoots for Elite, Wilhelmina, Next Model agencies and many more. This decision to explore his photography skills took him from Fashion photographer and Paparazzi to Events photographer and being the Deco Flash on FOX Channel 7.

Dance Labels and Music Production

In 1995, Pierre and fellow international DJs, Marc Sacheli and Ivano Bellini launched their own Dance Record Label "S.F.P. Records". Together, they successfully managed the label for 10 years, while discovering new talent and producing some of the best music compilation albums around the world. Pierre launched a new Dance Record label: Antilles Recordings in 2015. Aventura Records was launched shortly thereafter in response to the rapid changing of music styles

Film Productions

In 2004, Pierre decided to pursue his first love and real passion of making and producing films. He began with the production of a film in an industry that he was already familiar with by capturing the world's best DJ's (David Guetta, Bob Sinclar, Tiesto, Swedish House Mafia and many more) on film, during their performances. This provided a platform for producing further films and photo shoots for popular brands like Club Med, L'Oreal & Nike.

On September 11th, 2011, Pierre was commissioned to produce a behind-the-scene film about 9/11 in Paris, France. The film dubbed, '10 Years Later', became his first documentary and went on to win 2 awards:

•Best International Documentary at the Manhattan Film Festival.

•Silver Award for Short Documentary at Prestige Film Awards.

Pierre is currently working on his first short film "His Last Wish" and a Tattoo TV Series dubbed "Real Tattoo Stories".

Entertainment and Hospitality

From July 2018 till Dec 2019, Pierre moved to the North of Orlando (Leesburg) to build and manage Winterland Adventures, an ice-skating rink with a restaurant and a night club.

In January 2020, Pierre returned to his roots and is now living and working in Miami as a Resident DJ and Entertainment Manager at SLS Lux and SLS Brickell.
